

AOCMF Course—Management of Facial Trauma

November 14–15, 2019 Auckland, New Zealand

COURSE DIRECTOR

Simon Lou (Waikato District Health Board, New Zealand)

"This course is designed to provide participants with the fundamental knowledge and principles for the treatment of craniomaxillofacial fractures

COURSE CHAIR

Derek Goodisson (Hawkes Bay District Health Board, New Zealand)

Register NOW!

Target participants

Surgeons, residents, and fellows who are involved in the treatment of facial trauma.

Learning objective

Upon completion of the course, the participant should be able to:

- Diagnose facial injury through history, physical examination, and investigations
- Formulate a treatment plan (operative and nonoperative)
- Perform the specific treatment for facial trauma
- Modify the treatment plan when necessary
- Manage patient follow-up and rehabilitation
- Identify and manage complications

Course faculty

Regional faculty

Ricky Kumar (Royal Melbourne Hospital, Australia)

Nicholas Rutherford (Austin and Repatriation Hospital, Australia)

National faculty

Andrew Cho (Gillies Hospital, New Zealand)

Angus Colquhoun (Waikato Hospital, New Zealand)

Cameron Lewis (Middlemore Public Hospital, New Zealand)

Bulent Yaprak (Waikato Hospital, New Zealand)

Course Venue

Novotel Auckland Ellerslie Hotel
72-112 Greenlane East,
Ellerslie, Auckland

Course Fee

USD 935 (equivalent to NZD 1,400)
*an additional discount will be available to AOCMF member.

Course Registration

For more information and registration, please visit <http://aocmf10009173.aocmf.org>

Contact

Jenny Cheng (AOCMF Project Coordinator), at jenny.cheng@aocmf.org or dial to +852 25811795
Toni Butler (AO Secretariat New Zealand), at butler.toni@ao-courses.com